Design Review

Three design directions for UI and app icon improvements.

Option A

Refined Clarity

Option B

Mission Control

Option C

Aurora

April 2026

Option A: Refined Clarity

Apple HIG-aligned • Clean & spacious • Light-mode-first

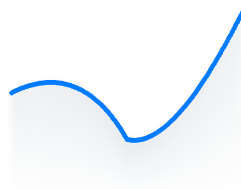

Design Principles

- 4-size typography scale (32/17/13/11) for clear hierarchy
- Shadow-lifted white cards replace bordered dark cards
- Standardized 8/16/24/32px spacing throughout
- Larger sidebar sparklines (72×28) for better readability
- Left-edge color strips on stat cards for category identity

Color Palette

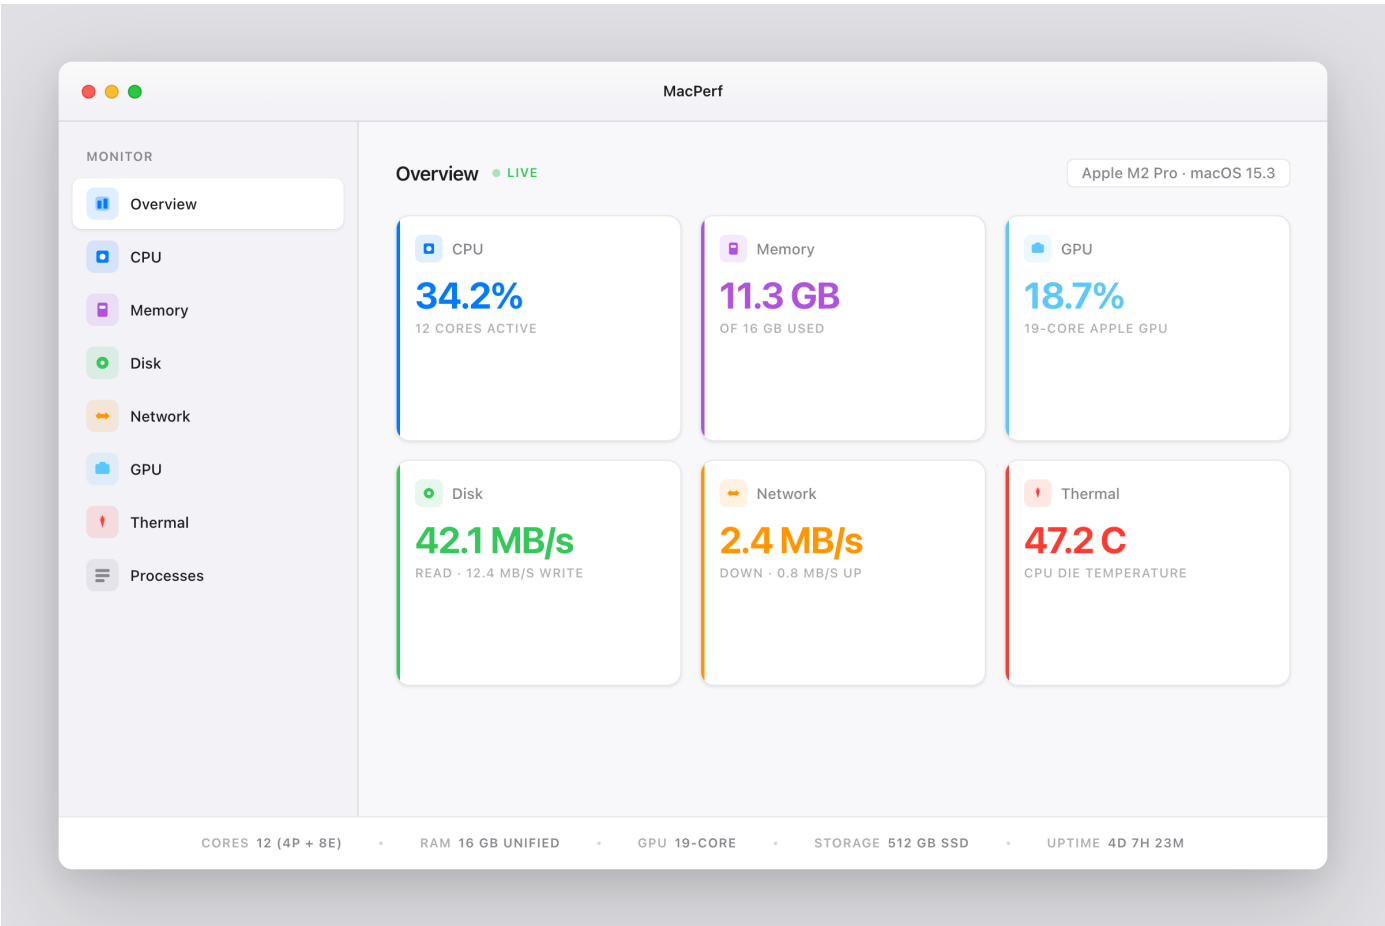

App Icon

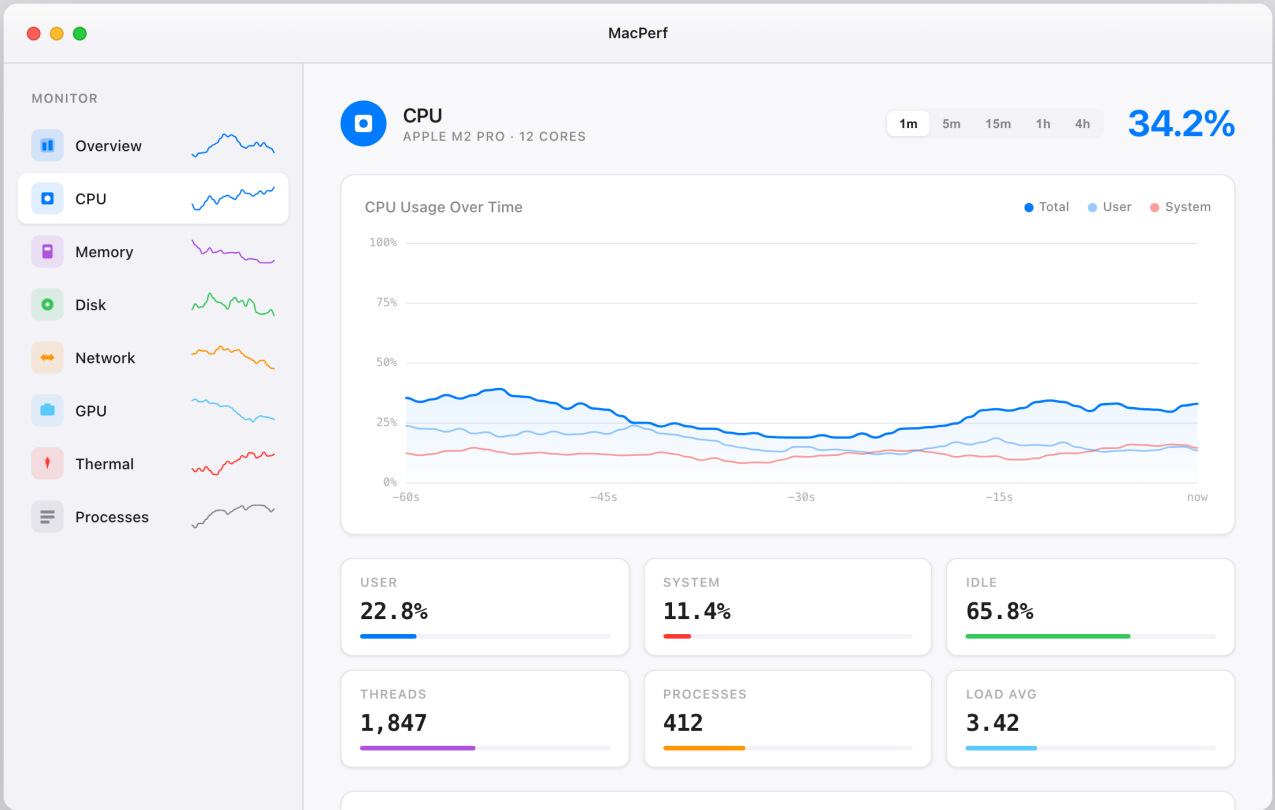

Minimal ascending line graph — white bg, Apple blue stroke, subtle gradient fill

Option B: Mission Control

Dense pro-dashboard • Dark-first • Data-forward

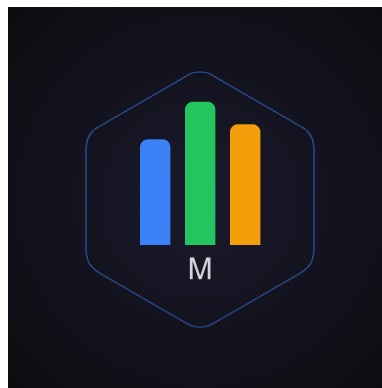

Design Principles

- SF Mono for all numeric values — engineering precision
- 4-column overview grid for maximum data density
- Mini circular gauges in sidebar replace sparklines
- System health status bar with color-coded segments
- Compact 4/8/12/20px spacing scale

Color Palette

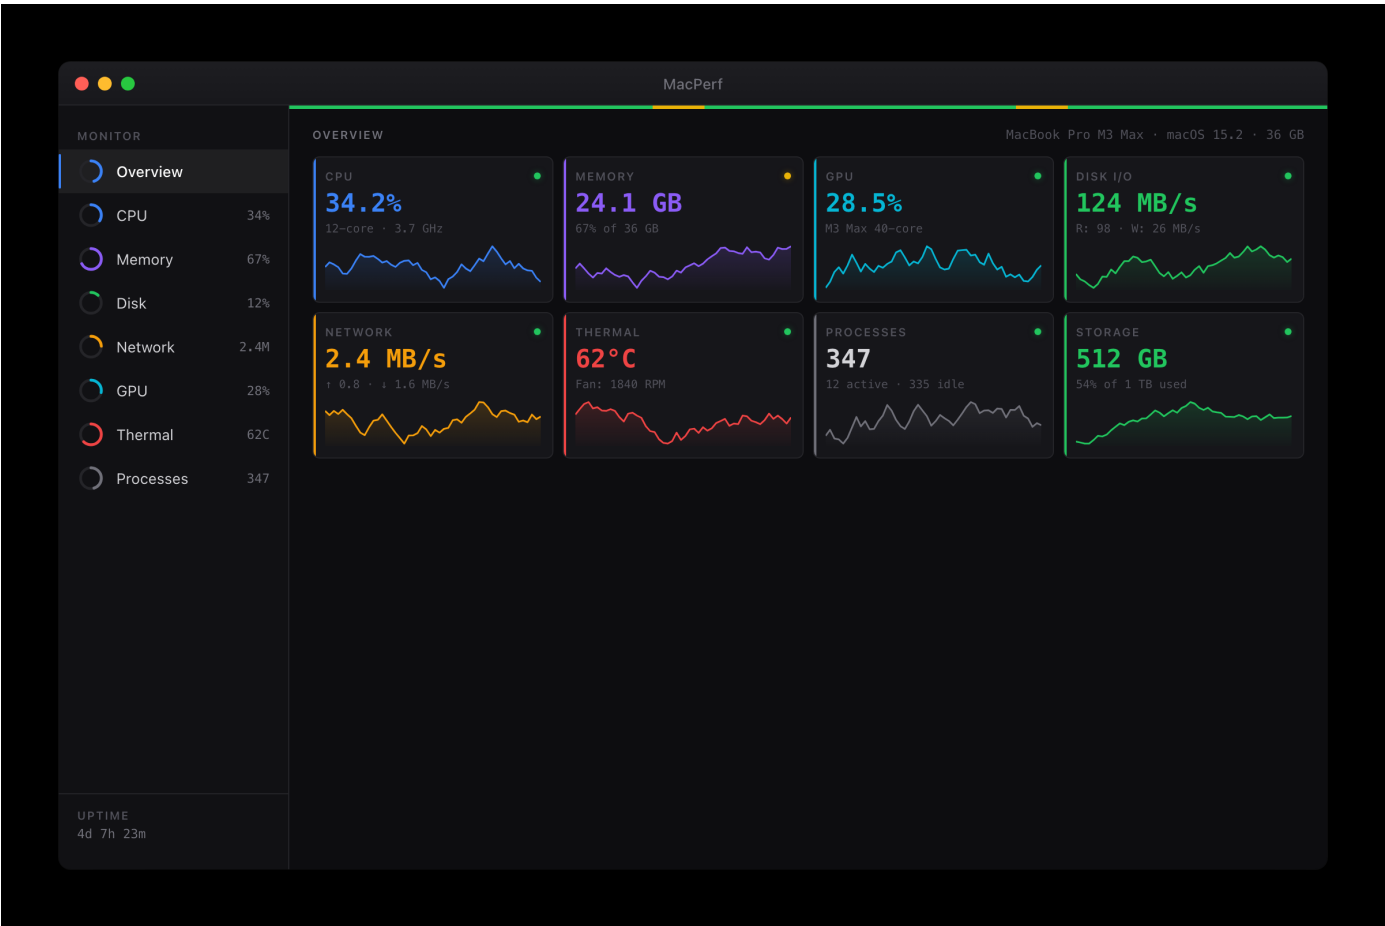

App Icon

Dark badge — hexagon outline, colored bar chart, "M" letterform

Option B: UI Mockups

Option C: Aurora

Gradient-rich • Glass-morphism • Vibrant & modern

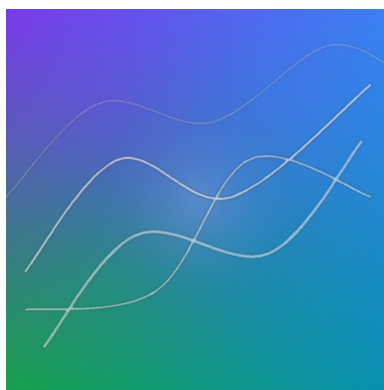

Design Principles

- Glass-morphism cards with backdrop blur and gradient borders
- Gradient text for display values instead of flat color
- Gradient sparkline fills and strokes for rich visual depth
- Animated gradient border glow on hover
- Radial background glows for ambient depth

Color Palette

App Icon

Abstract gradient mesh — flowing purple/blue/teal/green with white data lines
